

CHIEFTAIN 79

Even now - I have watercolor dreams,

Fragments of this and that,

Goals that I aim for,

Loves that I long for,

All running together making a messy palette to paint from.

I AM SARAH

This is my baptismal name.
And I am gay, as you know, Lord.
Essentially I am a person created in your image
God. I am also a sojourner, a pilgrim, a runner, and one who wishes to be free but still belong to a community.

I never liked masks, yet have felt forced at times to wear them. I have lived in two different parts of life, seemingly split down the middle of my being. Let my naked face now be seen by others as it is seen by you, Lord. Let me look upon the naked faces of others in all their created beauty, and not upon fabricated, complex, painted masks that obscure truth.

Let me move closer into wholeness, and help others to do the same, as I openly share the fullness of my being. Why should any part of my life be withheld from communication with others or treated in a secret or shadowy way? For I am warmly and happily grateful for joy and love, and the unfettered sharing of these in your wondrous world.

I thank you with all my heart for my creation and wholeness, God.

If the character of the West Georgia Soccer Club member in his 1978 season had to be summed up in one word, it would have to be determination.

Broken down statistically for the fall of 1978, each member invested approximately 136 hours of his time and $37.00 from his wallet, excluding liquid refreshments. He saw 1,780 miles of pavement pass before his eyes, as he ventured to such exotic metropolises as Gadsden and Gunthersville, Alabama, to name a few.

Despite the hardships that required each member to buy his own uniform and pay all transportation costs for away games, the combined roster for fall and spring seasons averaged 26 players.

The record for both seasons was 13 - 17 - 2, not to shabby when one considers the limited budget and such formidable opponents as the Universities of Georgia, Florida, and Alabama (at Tuscaloosa), NCAA-member Toccoa Falls College, 1978 GIAC soccer champions Berry College, as well as Tri-City Select, one of the top Division I Atlanta soccer league clubs.

The West Georgia Soccer Club exercises a club concept, in which each member that shows up for a game is guaranteed some playing time. However, as the growth of soccer as a major sport becomes more widespread in the United States, Coach Chico Moss foresees a more competitive attitude on the horizon.

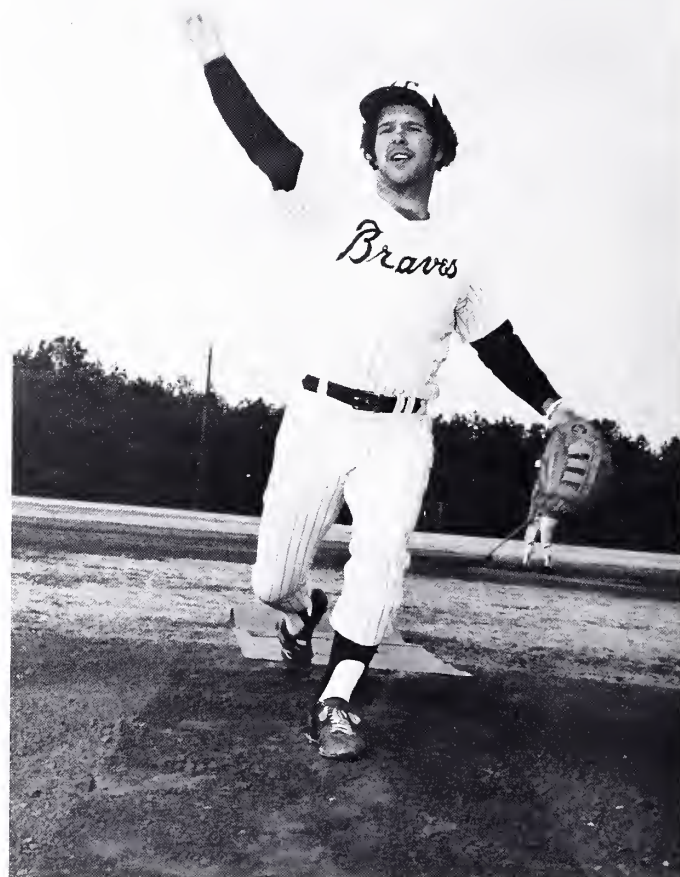

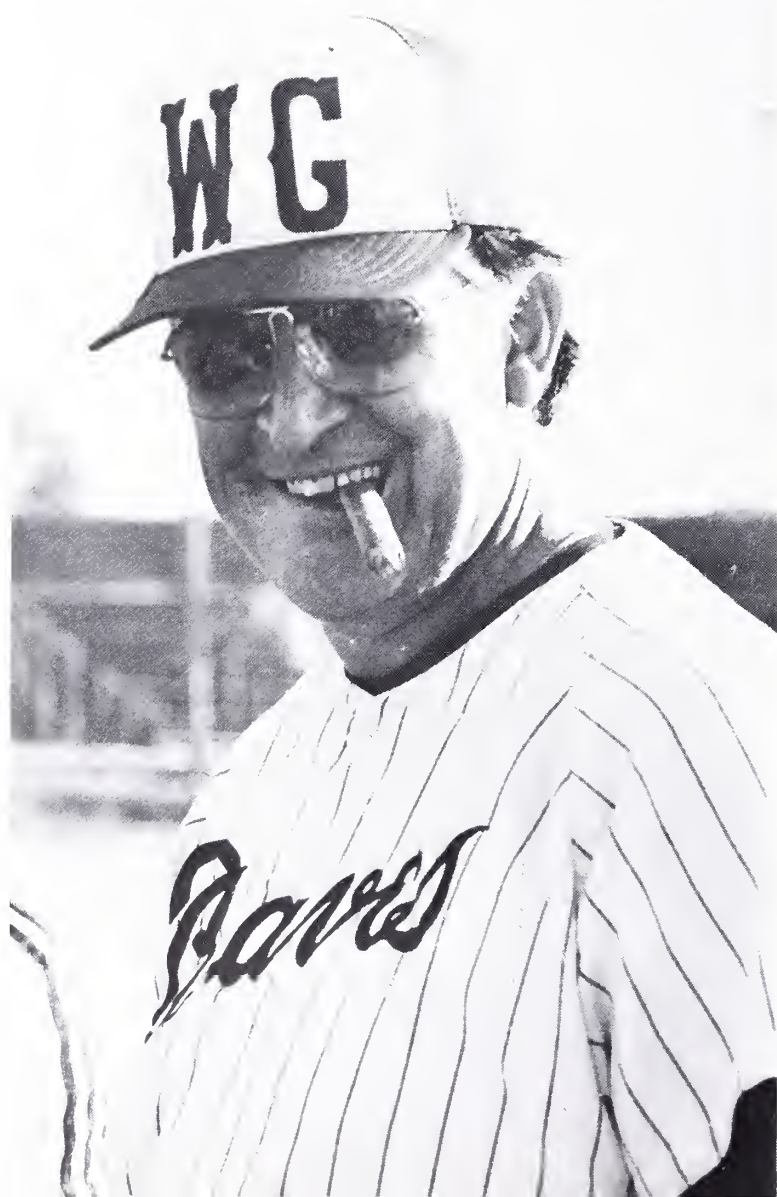

Some individual personalities that shone throughout the season were 1978 co-captains John "Totta" Green, Mark Roland, and Tom "Big Foot" Callahan, a.k.a. "The Gobbler". Other seniors were Mike Cahalan, Scott Allen, Tim Dugan, Jim Mellote and Mike "Wally" Boyd.

Returning veterans included Rico Moss, Scotty Chestnut, Toby Franklin, Bill O'Brien, Michael Flinn, Chris Sellin, Frank Ingui, Paul Rintye, Don Rose and Steve Harrison. Some outstanding rookies bringing fresh talent to the club were Bill Denio, Ricky Pearson, and Duncan MacNeil, to name a few. The club continued under the leadership of Faculty Advisor Dr. Dave Dugan and Player/Coach Robert "Chico" Moss.

SUPPORTING THE FUTURE , . . . TODAY !

During the past 28 years, Southwire Company has hired hundreds of young men and women from colleges and universities spanning the nation. Among these are a considerable number of graduates of West Georgia College, a veritable wealth of creative talent.

These WGC graduates now work in almost every phase of Southwire's operations—from management to metallurgy, finance to foreign languages, employment to economic. At Southwire, West Georgia grads serve in communications, purchasing, sales, and research and development. Many have bachelor's degrees, and an equal number have obtained master's degrees.

It is through the constant supply of fresh ideas furnished by the graduates of our colleges that Southwire Company has continued its remarkable growth in the past two decades. Because of this, we strongly support our educational system as the basis of successful private enterprise and constantly search for keen professionals to fill available jobs.

Pictured here are a sampling of West Georgia College graduates now working in various capacities throughout the company.

THE LONG BRANCH SALOON

For refreshments and relaxation, the students go to The Long Branch Saloon. There is live entertainment and a selection of good food. After hours of study or work it is nice to listen to music, chat with friends, sip a long drink, eat a bite, or just unwind.

The Long Branch should be your favorite club!

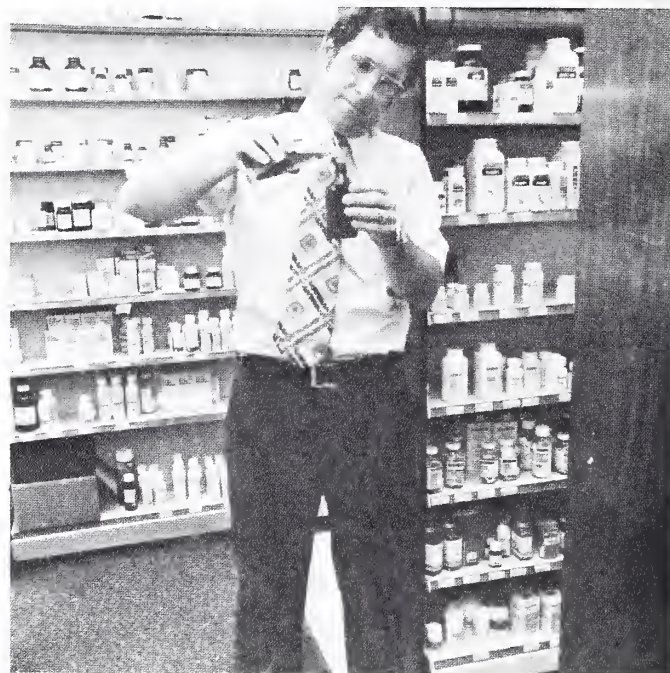

THE PEOPLE'S BANK

When I am burned and by arrangement

scattered on the Earth

I shall remain a year or two inside your head
until it too is burned

and then we shall remain (not quite ourselves) only inside the heads of those who knew us

till they in turn are dead and then we shall be nothing.

Tom Buchan

A small group of untrained students were asked by members of the faculty and administration to put together a yearbook to end all yearbooks. The Chieftain itself was at stake. If this book is not one of top quality, we were told, there will never be another one. So we set out to do our best; our best is done.

Most of you have never met me or the members of my staff, yet we feel we know each of you. Why? Because in this yearbook we have photographed and written about a small part of what is now your past. We feel certain that everyone of you will find a picture or group of words in this book that will touch a part of your life. If we are wrong then we have failed; we are not wrong.

Putting together this yearbook is the hardest thing that we have ever done. We could not have done it without each other, our advisors, our publishing representative and the people from our past who helped to make us what we are. As Editor in Chief of the 1979 Chieftain, I feel that each of these people deserves a personal vote of thanks.

Stan Bridges whose liberal ideas helped to keep the Chieftain from becoming just another yearbook.

Linda Handyside whose extra work as layout editor helped to give this book its excellent design.

Martha Witcher whose creative eye gave our pictures a special touch.

Lori Burroughs whose choice of words helped us to get our points across.

Curtis Cox, Bob Owens, Mark Harris, Alan Beatty, Stan Bridges and Doug Brannon whose excellent work as a photography team gave us exceptional pictures to choose from.

Mr. Bruce Bobick whose concern helped to get us started.

Dr. William Doxey whose strong will and helping hands kept us together.

Mr. Ross Henderson whose advice as a Publishing Representative compensated for my lack of experience, and Mrs. Winkie Greenhaw whose voice from my past echoes the vital qualities of strength, guidance and self-reliance through every day of my life.
